Bicyclist arrested twice in one hour

NORTH PLAINFIELD, N.J. (AP) — A 21-year-old man arrested twice within an hour for driving his 10-speed bicycle while intoxicated may lose his driver's license for six months, police said.

Plainfield was charged with driving while intoxicated at about 1 a.m. Saturday after he narrowly missed being struck by a car. He was arrested on the same charge an hour later after he was spotted riding the bike in circles, police said.
